THE LAND LEAGUE.

The Proceedings To-day Are Quite Lively.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The delegates of the Irish National League are now in session, reporting at the Central Music hall this morning. The committees appointed remained in session till a late hour last night, but in the main concluded their labors so as to be ready to report to the convention to day without cheering.) We did not fear and any delay. The committee on credentials had no contesting delegations to pass upon. The committee on resolutions worked harmoniously. Judge Fitzgerald, the temporary chairman, appeared on the platform at 10:25 o'clock and announced that several committees were still absent, but they expected to be able to report within a short time when he would call the convention to order.

The committee on permanent organization submitted a report, recommending that the temporary organization be made the permanent organization. The motion was put to the convention by Michael Davitt, apparently in expectation of complete harmony, and the motion was carried almost instantly. There were a few dissents, apparently from the New York delegation. Judge Fitzgerald rose and thanked the convention for the honor of the position in a neat speech.

Hon. John F. Finerty arose, and his appearance was a signal for tremendous cheering. He said he only rose to read a cablegram addressed to him. I read: "Dublin, Aug. 19.—Finerty. Chicago Convention-The manhood of Ireland is with you, and trusts the con vention will by resolutions, endorse Ireland's right and resolve to be free.

McCarthy Terling. [Signed] Davitt rose and said he desired to say a word in explanation: "He did not question the right of any one in Ireland to send a dispatch from Ireland, but said that Teeling had no right to speak for the people of Ireland. He was not a member of the league and I say Mr. Redmond, Mr. Deasey and myself have only the right to speak for the people of Ireland." [Loud Applause.] A scene of confusion followed, by Finerty desiring to speak and others opposing. He succeeded in saying but little when he declined to speak further.

The committee on resolutions report ed through Rev. Mr. Betts as foilows:

"We, delegates to the Irish Nationa League of America, in convention, firmly believing in the principles of human freedom and in the right of people to frame their own laws-a right which lies at the foundation of the prosperity and greatness of this republic, and which has been advantageously extended the colonial possessions of Great Britain. do hereby resolve:

1. That we express our heartiest and most unqualified approval of national self government for Ireland.

2. That we heartily approve of the course pursued by Charles Stewart Parnell and his purliamentary associates in the English house of commons, and we renew expressions of our entire confidence in their wisdom and in their abil ity to achieve home rule in Ireland.

3. We extend our heartfelt thanks to Gladstone for his great efforts in behalf of the Irish self-government, and we express our gratitude to the English. Scotch and Welsh democracy for the support given to the great liberal leader and his Irish policy during the recent general elections.

4. Resolved, That this convention hereby return its thanks to the American people and press for the general support they have given to the cause of selfgovernment in Ireland.

5. That we record our sense of the remarkable forbearance and self restraint exercised by our people in Ireland in the face of a cruel and dishonest system of extortion to which they are being subjected by rackrenting landlords in view organized lawlessness in the north of by the thousands.

Ireland by partisan officials and we commend the laudable desire of the people their own way.

6. That we hereby thank the president, treasurer and secretary of the Irish National league for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged the ardorous duties of their respective stations.

7. That the following cablegram be forwarded in the name of the chairman of the convention to Hon. Charles Stewart Parnell: "The delegates to the Irish National league convention of America send greeting from our body, which embraces representative citizens from every state and territory in the union and also Canada, and assure you of a cordial endorsement of your policy by a united and harmonious convention."

The reading was followed by hearty cheering.

Mr. Finerty moved the resolutions be dopted by sections.

Mr. Davitt suggested in a spirit of y frantic cheering.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Redmond, who spoke in a spirited vein of the wrongs inflicted on Ireland.

The convention, upon the conslusion of Redmond's speech, adjourned to 3

WANT FIGURES.

An Accounting of the Lafayette for the second time. Encampment Asked.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 19.-Now comes the Lafayette Leader and suggests that a great many people in Indiana and especially in Lafayette, would like to see a detailed statement made by Adjutant General George W. Koontz, of the receipts and disbursements on account of encampment. The Leader says: "The announcement is made in some of the and there remains to be divided among urday. the state militia $700. If the accounts are all audited, there certainly would be no impropriety in giving the public a statement, showing the daily receipts. from what sources, and also the daily expenses, and of what they consisted. The Leader does not ask a statement of so much paid in, so much expended and so much ahead; but the executive committee of citizens, the governor of the state and the people generally who contributed their money, have the right to know exactly what disposition is made of it. It is now a fortnight since the encampment closed, and the figures ought to be forthcoming. If bids were made for furnishing rations, etc., the report should show the amount of each bid der."

THE COMING COOFLICT.

The Candidates for Republica Favors Gathering at the State Capital.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 19.—Repub licans are flocking here from all direc tions. The News says a strong state ticket is believed to be a necessity if In diana is to be reclaimed from the democ 1acy. Thus far few men of promise or ability have announced themselves. For lieutenant governor, W. M. Ridpath once speaker of the house, is the only one who has formally begun a canvass for the place. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Hanna is willin' and General Veatch, of Rockport, is suggested, but there is lit tle enthusiasm in behalf of any of these. Perhaps it is too early for enthusiasm, but it is not too early for some of the candidates who are pressing their own claims. Among the possible candidates are: John H. Baker, of Goshen. T. P. Keator, of the Fort Wayne Gazette; Colonel R. S. Robertson, of Fort Wayne, Judge Hammond, of Rensselaer; Warren S. Sayre, of Wabash; Eugene Bundy, of New Castle: Major George Wa Grubbs, of Morgan, and J. J. Todd. of Bluffton. Whether any or all of these The Logansport creamery has failed names will be formally entered for the race has not yet been announced.

Up to date the most interest seems have centered in the canvass for superintendent of public instruction. Some good timber is available for this office, and a strong fight will be made for it Professor Scott Butler, of Butler university; Professor E. E. Smith, formerly of Purdue; John P. Mather, of Kosciusko county; H. M. LaFollette, of Boone, and J. M. Walcott are among the aspirants. The office is supposed to lie between Professors Butler and Mather and location will have much to do with the choice. All of these gentlemen have established headquarters at the Grand hotel and are already in the canvass. Some one of the opponents of Professor Butler has charged that he is not in sympathy with the public school system. This has called forth from that gentleman a pertinent reply. Belief in popular education with him, he says, is an inheritance. His ancestors were identified with the cause of education, and "before I had attained my majority I had served three years as a private soldier in an army that fought for the idea that the hope of popular government was in the enlightenment of the whole people. I repudiate the charge of alienism. A mind that sees no farther than the walls of a common school room is apt to regard our school system as machine and the public as grist for the mill. With this view I do not sympathize. I have always been of the opinion that public schools are for the people." Professor Butler also cites the fact that but two superintendents have been taken from among public school teachers-men of the widest experience, including generally college training, be-

The hint is dropped that Mr. Michener's chances would be better were he not so closely identified with the committee, for it has gone out that he is using his position to advance his political interests, and while there is not likely a grain of truth in it, it is sufficient to combine many of the other candidates against him.

A BRAVE WOMAN

Saves Her Daughters' Lives-A Panther Shot in Eastern Illinois.

Tolono, Aug. 19.—The panther mentioned in dispatches of August 5, as terrorizing the people about Rouse's Grove, eight miles southeast of here, was killed yesterday almost in the very act of a terrible tragedy. Mrs. Jack Montcalm was returning from near Tishomingo, in the Chickasaw nation, to her parents in Cleveland, O. She had run away and married against her father's consent in 1877, and he disowned and disinherited her. Montcalm took her with him to the territory, but misfortune eventually resulted in bankruptcy and he became a cowboy. She became accustomed to frontier life, and especially to the use of a rifle. Montcalm was recently killed. The widow loaded her household effects into a spring-wagon und with her two children and a pair of ponies, set out for her old home in the hope of obtaining shelter and forgiveness. Driving along the southern border of this county she crossed the Embarras river and camped upon the banks of a small creek emptying into it, yesterday noon. Her little girls, May and June, so named for the months in which they were born, gathered some chips and sticks to make a fire and then wandered out into the woods in search of flowers. When the dinner was prepared the mother called them, and, receiving no response, mechanically took the rifle from the wagon and started in the direction the children had gone. About sixty rods away she stain from recommending now for your observed a commotion in the trees, so slight that an untrained ear which are essential to the conduct of might not have detected it, and, quietly public service during the remaining poradvancing, she saw, perched upon the tion of the financial year. I am confilimb of a big oak, a huge panther, posing for a leap upon his prev-the two sleeping children on the ground. Instantly the mother raised the rifle to her shoulder and without a word sent a bullet hurling through the monster's vitals. The panther fell limp upon the ground, not twenty feet from the little girls, who were terribly frightened at their hasty awakening. James Fabert and D. W. Jones, who were passing along the road with a load of wood, heard the noise and went to hear the cause. They pronounced the brute the same that thev had pursued with their shot guns, but failed to kill. It had probably started back southward through the timber and was several miles below the grove when its existence was terminated by this heroic woman. She will tan the pelt and keep it as a souvenir of her adventure and the almost miraculous escape of her babies.

PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLES.

The Queen's Message is Short and Pertinent.

London, Aug. 19.—At the hour parliament met a depressing and persistent rain was falling. The queen's speech is as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen:

I have summoned you to meet at this unusual season for the transaction of indispensable business. The session of the last parliament was interrupted before the ordinary work of the year had been completed in order that the sense of my people might be taken on certain important proposals with regard to the government of Ireland. The result of that appeal has been to confirm the conclusion to which the late parliament had come. The provisional nature of the arrangement made by the last parliament for the public charge of the year renders it inexpedient to postpone any further consideration of the necessary financial legislation. At this period of the year, which is usually assigned for recess, and after the prolonged and exceptional labor to which many of you have been subjected, I abconsideration, any measure except those dent they will receive your prompt and careful attention."

THE rumor of an armed Chinese invasion of the United States will speedily knock out of the public mind all thought of the little Mexican affair. When the Chinese tom-tom is heard along our defenseless coast and the American voter is hustling to the nearest place of safety, Mexico will be relegated to the dim past A Chinese army, stationed in New York, could live two years on the rats, cats and sparrows' nests of the metropolis, while our own volunteers, with pork and hard tack, cornered in Chicago, would starve. It would be true policy, perhaps, to reeall the president at once from the Adirondacks.

In 1882 Judge Lowry received 16,986 votes, and his opponent, Mr. Glasgow. 13,623 votes, leaving Lowry's majority 3,363. In 1884 Lowry received 19,507 votes; his opponent, Mr. Keator, 16,957, leaving Lowry's majority 2,550. In 1882 the campaign was devoid of political excitement and men were not whipped into line as they were in 1884, a presidential year. That year the total value of the district was 30.609; two years later it was 36,464, an increase of 5,855. The contest this year will be much the same as it was in 1882, as Mr. Stanley will cut no figure in it.

Hon. John C. New is at Washington City, and in an interview with a newspaper reporter, feels confident that the republicans will carry the First, Seventh, Ninth and Twelfth districts, with a fighting chance in the Third. We do not understand why Mr. New thinks the republicans will carry the Twelfth district. It has always gone democratic by a large majority, and we can see no reason for a change this year. We have some democrats who are not in line, but the republicans are in the same condition. We feel confident that the district will give its usual democratic majority. No good democrat will leave his party now and take up with the republicans. We have been fighting long and hard for almost twenty-five years to elect a democratic president, and now that we have succeeded let us stand shoulder to shoulder and give the good old democratic party a chance to show to the world that we are a people of honesty, of reform and good government. Good times are already commencing to dawn upon us, and before Mr. Cleveland's administration draws to a close, the republicans and all others will see that the democratic party has done just what it promised to do. He would be a queer democrat who would leave his party now.

Said the legend of the iron-hearted old burghers who made her fame and name. Not rich in classic scholars or the lore of the schools, not famous for prowess in war or shrewdness in government was the old walled city. She had not even great wealth, as wealth is counted among bankers in our day. Yet Nuremberg's hand laid itself like iron upon all the cities of the middle ages. Her commercial supremacy made itself felt among them all. Yet that passed away and leftwhat? Nuremberg's hand still was upon all the lands. It is manifest to-day, not only in Europe, but in far America the influence of the quaint old city is as strong as it was in

ST. LOUIS MUSEUM OF ART. Ancient Nuremberg iron work and brass work, Nuremberg wood carving and ivory, painted glass imitated from her church windows, made centuries ago, are studied to this day. In St. Louis young blacksmiths belonging to the School of Fine Arts study intently the exquisitely wrought iron work of the city which Longfellow has written about in one the supremacy of war and commerce depart, but good work lasts forever.

It was Nuremberg's skilled mechanics that have made her glory enduring. It is the lesson for America to learn to-day. The true artistic spirt is that which advances the common industrial occupations and brings them to their highest excellence and beauty.

Art is not a number of pictures hanging in a gallery. It is that which makes beautiful the landscape, which makes the carpenter work solid in its construction and perfect in its finish. It is that spirit which prompts the worker to complete whatever he touches in the best possible manner.

This principle of the application of the artistic spirit to the common industries of life has taken deeper root in the west than in the east. The result is seen in all the large cities of the interior and of the west.

In St. Louis there is, in the true sense of the term, one of the best art schools in the country. It is called the School of Fine Arts, and has been for seven years connected with the Washington university. It has a museum of curios and art works, presented by Way man and Isabella Crowe. The director of the school is Professor Ives. Its wise aim is not to imitate old masters, but to give simply a training of the eye, hand and brain, which will assist the iron molder to make better stoves, and the tapestry designer to give us more beautiful wall paper.

The American landscape looks as a rule as though it had been clawed up and thrown around loose. The art spirit that is now being born and trained in the west will in time change this till the country will look like a series of lawns and gardens and beautiful pictures. "The work to be done in the west," says Professor Ives, of the St. Louis Art school, "is to do something with raw material."

There are not many copies of old European pictures in the St. Louis Art museum. But there is what is better, reproduction of works of the finer industries in metal, wood, ivory, porcelain, etc. The school is doing a noble work, and will make a great impression on that part of the country.

CHICAGO ART INSTITUTE. Chicago is a magnificent money-making city. Except in the buying of foreign pictures with the wealth made in Chicago the universal western art movement has not yet made itself greatly felt there however. It has an art school called the Chicago Art institute. The handsome structure shown in the illustration is at present in process of erection for the institute. Not much progress has been made in the one important field of the industrial arts. The only competent American designer and decorator in the whole city is a graduate of the St. Louis Art school. But all this will be changed speedily. Chicago people say. The city is too new to have done much but create wealth so far. The fire was a great blow, too. For many years nothing could be attended to outside of the line of strict bread and butter getting. Now there is more time, and Chicago energy will be equal to this call, as it always has been equal to every other. There is a pottery club in the city, and the art institute is at tended by 400 pupils.

BUFFALO LIBRARY AND ART BUILDING. Skipping in a line east we find that the little city of Buffalo has made creditable progress in art. For twenty-four years it has supported a fine arts academy. A beautiful new library building has been erected, and in this there are accommodations for the academy, which has so long upheld the banner of art in Buffalo. The movement begins to show itself in improved and beautiful homes for the people, which are springing up all over the country It is especially gratifying to note the change in the building of country homes and farm houses that has come about in the last ten years. This pleasing and artistic rural architecture is a sure sign of the growth of the art

Mrs. Governor Foraker, of Ohio. It is said of Governor John B. Foraker, of Ohio, that he always misses what he tries for the first time heattempts it, but he tries again, and the second time he gets it. This was the case with the governorship of Ohio. It is not related whether it was also his luck when he was courting the lady who is his handsome wife, whose picture is here given, or not. At any rate, he has reason to congratulate himself on his good fortune in this instance, whether it was his first or second luck. Mr. Julia Bunday Foraker is now 39 years old. She was born in Jackson county, Ohio, and her father was a congressman during the war. Unlike the wives of too many Ameri can public men, she is well educated. She was graduated at the Ohio Wesleyan Female college, at Delaware, in that state, in 1868. During her pleasant school life here she me her husband that was to be, John Foraker. In 1870 she was married to him he being then a young lawyer in practice in Cincin

MRS. FORAKER.

Both Mrs. Foraker and her husband are re ligiously inclined, and are members of the Methodist church. It is said they still keep up the ancient custom of family prayer and grace at table. Mrs. Foraker has been always prominent in the missionary work of he church. Before she went to Columbus with the governor, she was president of the Wo men's Home and Foreign Missionary society of Walnut Hills. The name of the part of Cincinnati where the Forakers reside when they are at home, is Walnut Hills. It is a suburb, containing some of the most beautiful half-city, half-country homes in America. A range of picturesque hills sweep back from the river in a crescent, and incloses the level which contains what is now called Cincinnati in the bottom. This is the part in which the factories and business houses are. A large part of the population have climbed out upon the beautiful hills for their dwelling places and among these are the governor's family Mrs. Foraker has four children, a boy and three girls. Her tastes are domestic. The time she has to spare from home duty is given to religious and benevolent work.

About September 1st, Robert Sample, of Lafayette, will ship ten car loads of Hereford cattle to N. D. Childs, of Montana. This will be the largest shipment ever made from Lafayette. The price paid for the lot was $26,000. Mr. Sample's Hereford business is on the increase. For the year ending April 1, his aggregate sales were over $65,000 and this year sales will probably nearly double that amount.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Unild, she cried for Castoria When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria, United States Marshal Hawkins was made happy yesterday morning by receiving his commission, his office to continue four years from the date of confirmation, which was August 3, or a fraction over ten months after his original appointment. The opposition to him in the senate was therefore good for ten months.

THE cottage at Bar Harbor which is occupied by Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt and George Vanderbilt, her young. est son, is delightfully situated. It is surrounded by fine fir trees, while a lovely lawn slopes down to the ocean. The Atlantic breezes keep it cool at all hours, and it is free from the flies and mosquitoes which annoy the cottagers on the Frenchman's bay, or land side of the town. Picturesque views are obtained from the cottage of the harbor and adjacent islands, and fishing schooners passing in and out. The cottage is in the style of the old German farm-house, and is fitted up with quaint old furniture which Miss Bowler, the owner, has picked up in her travels in Europe. George Vanderbilt is spoken of by a Maine newspaper as a "scholarly, gentlemanly fellow, inheriting many of the gentle, unassuming ways of his Warrants were issued Saturday at Indianapolis for the arrest of all property owners who rent their buildings to prostitutes. Seven arrests were made, and among them are some of the best known citizens in the place. As many as three indictments are returned against two or three of the parties. This is regarded as a new departure, but it became necessory, as the lewd element is encroaching upon the best streets in the city, much to the detriment of property and society.

A few days ago Fred Busick, of Monroe township, shipped a car load of cattle to Cincinnati and accompanied them W. A. Laselle is very low with ty- | to that market. He disposed of the herd and then he returned with a snug check in his pocket. Nearing Decatur Mr. Busick was taken quite ill and asked the conductor to arouse him when the train approached that village. The train man did as requested and passed on. The next heard of Busick he was almost a corpse and lay in the ditch along the Grand Rapids railroad. His face was purple and he was speechless. By signs he demonstrated that he fell from the train, and the theory is that he was asleep at the time. He was taken to Decatur and Dr. W. H. Myers was summoned to treat him. His injuries are considered fatal, and THE SENTINEL informant, who is his relative, believes he cannot live. His check, watch and chain and other valuables were found on his person.

THE REUNION.

The First Day in Camp Grant.

The weather is all that could be de sired in Camp Grant and the Toledo battery, which has been here since Monday, was reinforced by companies from Jackson, Andrews and Monroeville, the latter being under command of Dr. C. A. Leiter and headed by the ladies' cornet band. The delegations were not large, but they are expected to be plentiful in arrivals to-day and to-morrow. At the soldiers' reunion at Camp Grant to-day Capt, O. J. Hopkins, of Toledo, was the officer of the day. Col. C. A. Zollinger will be in command to-morrow and Gen. W. H. Gibson on Saturday. Saturday afternoon there will be a re union of the 129th regiment, Zollinger's command.

Gen. Rosecrans is expected here this evening and he will be the guest of Mayor Charles F. Muhler. Mr. Muhler, Congressman Lowry and Captain J. B. White have been appointed a committee to meet Geu. THE LAND LEAGUE.

The Proceedings To-day Are Quite Lively.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—The delegates of the Irish National League are now in session, reporting at the Central Music hall this morning. The committees appointed remained in session till a late hour last night, but in the main concluded their labors so as to be ready to report to the convention to day without any delay. The committee on credentials had no contesting delegations to pass upon. The committee on resolutions worked harmoniously. Judge Fitzgerald, the temporary chairman, appeared on the platform at 10:25 o'clock and aunounced that several committees were still absent, but they expected to be able to report within a short time when he would call the convention to

The committee on permanent organi zation submitted a report, recommending that the temporary organization be made the permanent organization. The motion was put to the convention by Michael Davitt, apparently in expects tion of complete harmony, and the mo-tion was carried almost instantly. There were a few dissents, apparently from the New York delegation. Judge Fitzgerald rose and thanked the convention for the honor of the position in a neat speech.

Hon. John F. Finerty arose, and his appearance was a signal for tremendons cheering. He said he only rose to rend a cablegram addressed to him. It rend: "Dublin, Aug. 19.—Finerty, Chicago Convention-The manhood of Ireland is with you, and trusts the con vention will by resolutions, endorse Iroland's right and resolve to be free.

MoCARTHY TRELING. [Signed] Davitt rose and said he desired to say a word in explanation: "He did not question the right of any one in Ireland to send a dispatch from Ireland, but said that Teeling had no right to speak for the people of Ireland. He was not a member of the lengue and I say Mr. Red mond, Mr. Deasey and myself have only the right to speak for the people of Ire-land." [Lond Applause.]

A scene of confusion followed, by Finerty desiring to speak and others oppos-ing. He succeeded in saying but little when he declined to speak further.

The committee on resolutions report ed through Rev. Mr. Betts as follows:

"We, delegates to the Irish Nationa League of America, in convention, firmly believing in the principles of human freedom and in the right of people to frame their own laws—a right which lies at the foundation of the prosperity and greatness of this republic, and which has been advantageously extended the colonial possessions of Great Britain, do hereby resolve:

1. That we express our heartiest and most unqualified, approval of national self government for Ireland. 2. That we heartily approve of the course pursued by Charles Stewart Parnell and his purliamentary associates in the English house of commons, and we renew expressions of our entire confidence in their wisdom and in their ability to achieve home rule in Ireland.

3. We extend our heartfelt thanks to Gladstone for his great efforts in behalf of the Irish self-government, and we express our gratitude to the English, Scotch and Welsh democracy for the support given to the great liberal leader and his Irish policy during the recent general elections.

4. Resolved, That this convention bereby return its thanks to the American people and press for the general support they have given to the cause of self-government in Ireland. 5. That we record our sense of the remarkable forbearance and self restraint exercised by our people in Iroland in the face of a cruel and dishonest system of extertion to which they are being subjected by rackrenting landlords in view Lorganized lawlessness in the north of by the thousands.

6. That we hereby thank the presi dent, treasurer and secretary Irish National league for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged the ardorous duties of their respective stations,

7. That the following cablegram be forwarded in the name of the chairman of the convention to Hon. Charles Stewart Parnell: "The delegates to the Irish National league convention of America send greeting from our body, which embraces representative citizens from every state and territory in the union and also Canada, and assure you of a cordial endorsement of your policy by a united and harmonious c The reading was followed by hearty

Mr. Finerty moved the resolutions be dopted by sections.

We did not fear and were enough of them there here to strangle if necessary, those who would attempt to humper or thwart the absolute purpose of the league to follow Parnell under any flag he might elect. Great cheering. 1

Mr. Davitt anggested in a spirit of harmony that the resolutions be adopted quantimously. Mr. Finerty withdrew his motion and the resolutions were then passed by the convention rising, followed by frantic cheering.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Redmond, who spoke in a spirited vein of the wrongs inflicted on Ireland.

The convention, upon the conslusion of Redmond's speech, adjourned to 8 o'olook.

WANT FIGURES.

An Accounting of the Lafayette Encampment Asked.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 19.-Now omes the Lafayette Leader and suggests that a great many people in Indiana and especially in Lafayette, would like to see a detailed statement made by Adjutant General George W. Koontz, of the receipts and disbursements on account of encampment. The Leader says: "The announcement is made in some of the city papers that all bills have been paid, and there remains to be divided among the state militia $700. If the accounts are all andited, there certainly would be no impropriety in giving the public is statement, showing the daily receipts from what sources, and also the daily expenses, and of what they consisted The Leader does not usk a statement of so much paid in, so much expended and so much ahead; but the executive committee of citizens, the governor of the state and the people generally who unntributed their money, have the right to know exactly what disposition is made of it. It is now a formight since the oncampment closed, and the figures ough to be forthcoming. If bids were made for furnishing rations, etc., the report should show the amount of each bid

Dr. J. W. Younge Breathes the Free Air Again.

Yesterday THE SENTINEL detailed the lans for Dr. J. W. Younge's liberation After a brief consideration Judge Hench adojurned the case until this morning and at 10 o'clock the doctor stepped in with his attorneys, Colerick & Oppen hoim. H. C. Hanna and J. B. Harper appeared for the Tri-State association motion was made for a new trial on the grounds of irregularity in his conviction. It was clearly shown Judge Sinclair had no right to force Docto Younge to testify and criminate himself Other flaws were picked in the forme proceeding and it did not take Judge Hench long to grant the request for a new trial, releasing Dr. Younge on a hond of $300, which he promptly fur-nished. G. W. Beavey is his bondsman nd the date of his next trial is not fixed, He is simply given a new trial as to the contempt, but not as to the injunction as that still hangs over him and binds him to refrain from annoying or interfering with the encampment

Dr. Younge after all will not miss the reunion and he may be expected on the encampment grounds regaled in all his rich accourrements of war, the envy of his persecutors. It is unnecessary to add that the doctor is still a daisy.

THE COMING COOFLICT.

The Candidates for Republican Favors Gathering at the State Capital.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 19.-Repub licans are flooking here from all directions. The News says a strong state ticket is believed to be a necessity if Indians is to be reclaimed from the democ Thus far few men of promise of ability have aunounced themselves. For lieutenant governor, W. M. Ridpath, once speaker of the house, is the only one who has formally begun a canvas for the place. Ex-Lientenant Governor Hanns is willin' and General Vesteb, of Rockport, is suggested, but there is littio enthusiasm in behalf of any of these. Perhaps it is too early for cuthusiasm but it is not too early for some of the eandidates who are pressing their own claims. Among the possible candidates are: John H. Baker, of Goshen, T. P. Kestor, of the Fort Wayne Gazette; Colonel R. S. Robertson, of Fort Wayne, Judge Hammond, of Rensselaer; Warren S. Sayre, of Wabssh; Eugene Bundy, of New Castle; Major George We Grubbs, of Morgan, and J. J. Todd, of Whether any or all of these Biuffton. names will be formally entered for the race has not yet been announced,

Up to date the most interest seems to have centered in the canvage for superintendent of public instruction. Some good timber is available for this office, ud a strong fight will be made for it. Professor Scott Butler, of Butler universily; Professor E. E. Smith, formerly of Purdue; John P. Mather, of Kosciusko county; H. M. LaFoliette, of Boone, and J. M. Walcott are among the aspirants. The office is supposed to lie between Professors Butler and Mather and location will have much to do with the choice. All of these gentlemen have established headquarters at the Grand hotel and are already in the canvass. Some one of the opponents of Professor Butler has charged that he is not in sympathy with the public school system. This bas called forth from that gentleman a pertineut reply. Belief in popular education with him, he says, is an inheritance His aucostors were identified with the cause of education, and "before I had attained my majority I had served three years as a private soldier in an army that fought for the idea that the hope of popular government was in the enlightenment of the whole people. I repudiate the charge of alienism. A mind that sees no farther than the walls of a common school room is apt to regard our school system as machine and the public as grist for the mill. With this view I do not sympathize. I have always been of the opinion that public schools are for the people." Professor Butler also cites the fact that but two superintendents have been taken from among public school teachers-men of the widest experience including generally college training, being preferred.

Beyond the state superintendency little interest has yet been awakened. state auditorship is conceded to Bruce Carr, although A. O. Dailey, of Boone, is not without supporters. Captain D. n, with a his horses in front of his home to step reputation, will compete with N. S. Byout. Without an apparent ram for the state treasurership. For clerk of the supreme court, Simon T. Yaney, of Hancock county, is making a sanyass. For competitor he will have so far as known, Will T. Noble, of Wayne; David Whittaker, of Greene, and John Whentley, of this county, but credited to Johnson. The secretary of the state central committee, L. T. Michener, of Shelby, wants to be attorney general John W. Lovett, of Anderson, is also a candidate. C. F. Griffith, of Lake, and A. M. Bartholomow, of Grant, arc among the aspirants for secretary of state.

Mr. Michener, who is sceretary of the secretary, and he feels quite confi- and the Boswell Guards, denr of being selected. The hint is dropped that Mr. Michener's chances would be better were he not so closely identified with the committee, for it bar gone out that he is using his position to advance his political interests, and while there is not likely a grain of truth in it, it is sufficient to combine many of the other candidates against him.

A BRAVE WOMAN

Saves Her Daughters' Lives_A Panther Shot in Eastern Illinois.

Tolono, Aug. 19.-The panther mon

tioned in dispatches of August 5, as terrorizing the people about Rouse's Grove eight miles southeast of here, was killed yesterday almost in the very act of a terrible tragedy. Mrs. Jack Montenim was returning from near Tishomingo, in the Chickseaw nation, to her parents in Cleveland, O. She had run away and married against her father's consent in 1877, and he disowned and disinherited her. Montealm took her with him to the territory, but misfortune eventually resulted in bankruptcy and he became a cowboy. She became accustomed to frontier life, and especially to the use of a rifle. Montcalm was recently killed, The widow loaded her household effect into a spring-wagon und with her two children and a pair of ponies, set out for her old home in the hope of obtaining shelter and forgiveness. Driving along the southern border of this county she crossed the Embarros river and camped upon the banks of a small creek empty ing into it, yesterday noon. Her little When the girls, May and June, so named for the months in which they were born, gathered some chips and sticks to make fire and then wandered out into the woods in search of flowers. dinner was prepared the mother called them, and, receiving no response, me chanically took the rifle from the wagni and started in the direction the children had gone. About sixty rods away she observed a commotion in the trees so slight that an untrained car might not have detected it, and, quietly advancing, she asw, perched upon the limb of a big cak, a huge panther, posing for a leap upon his prey-the two sleeping children on the ground. In stantly the mother raised the rifle to her shoulder and without a word sout a bullet hurling through the monster's vitals. The panther fell limp upon the ground not twenty feet from the little girls, who were terribly frightened at their husty awak sning. James Fabort and D. W Joi :s, who were passing along the road wit a load of wood, heard the noise and went to hear the cause. They prononneed the brute the same that they had pursued with their shot guns, but failed to kill. It had probably started back southward through the timber and was several miles below the grove when its existence was terminated by this heroic woman. She will tan the and keep it as a souvenir of her adventure and the almost mirronious escape of

I have summoned you to meet at this unusual season for the transaction of indispensable business. The session of the last parliament was interrupted before the ordinary work of the year had been completed in order that the sense of my people might be taken on certain important proposals with regard to the government of Ireland. The result of that appeal has been to confirm the conclusion to which the late parliament had come. The provisional nature of the arrangement made by the last parliament for the public charge of the renders it inexpedient to postpone any further consideration of the necessary fluencial legislation. At this period of the year, which is usually assigned for recess, and after the prolonged and exceptional labor to which many of you have been subjected, I shstain from recommending now for your consideration, any measure except those which are essential to the conduct of public service during the remaining portion of the financial year. I am confident they will receive your prompt and sareful attention."

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND makes no mistakes. Every act and every movemen shows honesty and good intention. The democracy have just reason to be proud of their president. Stand by him and always have a good word for the man you helped to place in power, for he is worthy.

The rumor of an armed Chinese in vasion of the United States will speedily knock out of the public mind all thought of the little Mexican affair. When the fenseless coast and the American voter is hustling to the nearest place of safety, Mexico will be relegated to the dim past. A Chinese army, stationed in New York could live two years on the rats, cats and sparrows' nests of the metropolis, while our own volunteers, with pork and hard tack, cornered in Chicago, would starve. It would be true policy, perhaps, to re call the president at once from the Adi-

In 1882 Judge Lowry received 16,986 votes, and his opponent, Mr. Glasgow, 13,623 votes, leaving Lowry's majority 3,363. In 1884 Lowry received 19,507 votes; his opponent, Mr. Kentor, 16,957, leaving Lowry's majority 2,650. In 1882 the campaign was devoid of political excitement and men were not whipped into line as they were in 1884, a presi dential year. That year the total value of the district was 30,609; two years later it was 36,464, an increase of 5,855 The contest this year will be much the same as it was in 1882, as Mr. Stanley will cut no figure in it.

Hon. John C. New is at Washington City, and in an interview with a news puper reporter, feels confident that the republicans will carry the First, Seventh Ninth and Twelfth districts, with a fighting chance in the Third. We do not understand why Mr. New thinks the republicans will carry the Twelfth district. It has always gone democratic by a large majority, and we can see no resson for a change this year. We have some democrate who are not in line, but the republicans are in the same condi-We feel confident that the dis tion. trict will give its usual democratic majority. No good democrat will leave his party now and take up with the republi-cans. We have been fighting long and hard for almost twenty-five years to elect a democratic president, and now that we have succeeded let us stand shoulder to shoulder and give the good old democratic party a chance to show to the world that we are a people of honesty, of reform and good government. Good times are already commoneing to dawn upon us, and before Mr. Cleveland's administration draws to a close, the republicans and all other will see that the democratic party has done just what it promised to do. He would be a queer democrat who would leave his party now.

Nuremberg's hand laid itself like iron upon all the cities of the middle ages. Her commercial supremacy made itself felt among them all. Yet that passed away and left—what Nuremberg's hand still was upon all

ST. LOUIS MUNIDIM OF ART.

Ancient Nursuberg from work and brass work, Nursuberg wood carving and ivory, painted glass imitated from her church windows, made centuries ago, are studied to this day. In St. Louis young blacksmiths belonging to the School of Fine Arts study intently the exquisitedly wrought iron work of the city which Longolidew has written about in one of his strongest poems. Wealth drops away, the supremacy of war and commerce depart, but good work lasts forever.

Chicago are institute.

Chicago is a magnificent money-making city. Except in the buying of foreign pictures with the wealth mode in Chicago the universal wastern art movement has not yet made itself greatly felt there however. It has an art school called the Chicago Art institute. The handsome structure shown in the Illustration is at present in process of excetion for the institute. Not much progress has been made in the one important field of the industrial arts. The only competent American designer and decorator in the whole city is a graduate of the St. Lonis Art school. But all this will be changed speedily, Chicago people say. The city is too new to have done much but create wealth so far. The fire was a great blow, too. For many years nothing could be attended to cutside of the line of strict bread and butter getting. Now there is more time, and Chicago energy will be equal to this call, as it always has been equal to every other. There is a pottery club in the city, and the art institute is attended by 400 pupils. tended by 400 pupils.

Mrs. Governor Forakor, of Ohlo. It is said of Governor John B. Forakor, Ohlo, that he always misses what he tries i the first time he attempts it, but he tries again, and the second time he gets it. This was the case with the governmenting of Ohio. It is not related whether it was also his luck when he was courting the hidy who is his hundsome wife, whose picture is here given, or not. At any rate, he has reason to con-gratulate himself on his good fortune in this instance; whether it was his first or second instance, whether it was mes most of the luck.

Mr. Julia Bunday Forukor is now 30 years old. She was born in Jackson county, Ohio, and her father was a congressional during the war. Unlike the wives of too many American public men, she is well educated. She was graduated at the Olite Wesleyan Fernale college, at Delaware, in that state, in 1818. During her pleasant school life here she met her dusbund that was to be, John Foraker. In 1870 she was married to him, he being then a young lawyer in practice in Cincinnat.

Both Mrs. Foraker and her busband are religiously inclined, and are members of the Methodist church. It is said they still keep ligiously Inclined, and are members of the Methodisc church. It is said they still keep up the ancient custom of family puryer and grace at table. Mrs. Furdker has been always prominent in the missionary work of her church!. Before she went to Columbus with the governor, she was president of the Vomen's Home and Pereign Missionary society of Walmit Hills. The name of the part of Cincinnaty where the Forukers reside when they are at home, is 'Walmit Hills. It is a suburb, containing some of the most beautiful ball-city, helt-country hores in America. A range of picturesque hills sweep back from the inver in a crescent, and incloses the lovel which contains which is now called Cincinnati, in the bottom. This is the part in which the factories and business houses are. A large part of the population have clinted out upon the beautiful hills for their dwelling places, and among these are the governor's family. Mrs. Forukor has four children, a boy and three girls. Her tastes are domestic. The time she has to spare from home duty is given to religious and benevolent work.

THE cottage at Bar Harbor, which is occupied by Mrs. William 11. Vander hilt and George Vanderbilt, her youngest son, is delightfully situated. It is surrounded by fine it trees, while a lovely lawn slopes down to the ocean. The Atlantic breezes keep it coul at all hours, and it is free from the flies and mosquitoes which annoy the cottagers on the Frenchman's bay, or land side of the town. Picturesque views are obtained from the cottage of the harbor and adjacent islands, and fishing schooners passing in and out. The cot tage is in the style of the old German farm-house, and is fitted up with quaint old furniture which Miss Bowler, the owner, has picked up in her travels in Europe. George Vanderbilt is spoken of by a Maine newspaper as a "scholarly, gentlemanly fellow, inheriting many of the gentle, unassuming ways of his mother."

It is on the bills that Lady Mand Ogilvie, daughter of the late Eml of Airlie, of London, England, is soon to marry an American. Since the death of her father Lady Mand has spent the summers in Estes Park, Colorado, with her brother, who owns immense tracts of lands in the West, purchased by the Earl. The marriage is to take place in this country and the downger Lady Airlie will come from England to be present on the occasion.

Fred Busick, of Monroe Township, Walks off a Train.

A few days ago Fred Busick, of Monroe township, shipped a car load of cat-tle to Cincinnati and accompanied them to that market. He disposed of the herd and then he returned with a suug check in his pocket. Nearing Deeatur Mr. Busick was token quite ill and asked the conductor to arouse him when the train approached that village. The train man did as requested and passed on; The next heard of Busick he was almost a corpse and lay in the ditch along the Grand Rapids railroad. His face was purple and he was speechless By signs he demonstrated that he fell from the train, and the theory is that he was asleep at the time. He was taken to Decentur and Dr. W. H. Myers was summoned to treat him. His injuries are considered fatal, and The Sentings. informant, who is his relative, believes he cannot live. His cheek, watch and chain and other valuables were found on his person.

THE REUNION.

The First Day in Camp Grant,

The weather is all that could be de sired in Camp Grant and the Toledo battery, which has been here since Monday, was reinforced by companies from Jackson, Andrews and Monroeville, the latter being under command of Dr. C. A. Leiter and headed by the ladies' cornet band. The delegations were not large, but they are expected to be plentiful in arrivals to-day and to-morrow.

At the soldiers' reunion at Camp Grant to-day Capt. O. J. Hopkins, of Toledo, was the officer of the day, Col. C. A Zollinger will be in command to morrow and Gen. W. H. Gibson on Saturday Saturday afternoon there will be a reunion of the 129th regiment, Zollinger' command.

Gen. Resecrans is expected here this vening and he will be the guest of Mayor Charles F. Muhler. Mr. Muh ler. Congressman Lowry and Cantain J. B. White have been appointed a committee to meet Gev. Resecrans at the depot and he will be escorted to the mansion home of the mayor by the troops in camp Grant and the Fort Wayne rifles.

Gen. Phil Sheridan is going east this evening, and people who go to the south depot, can get a glimpse of him.
will greet all comrades.
